

Career Opportunities

Academic Sector

- University sectors career includes research and development areas as well as faculty appointments. A Masters gives access to further education programs such as the Ph.D. in Global Health program offered by NTU College of Public Health and access to Medical School.

Development Agencies

- National and International Organizations (INGOs, NPOs, NGOs) management, monitoring, developing and implementing activities such as WHO, World Bank, United Nations (UN), Pan America Health Organization. (PAHO)

Private Sector

- Consultancies, industries in healthcare such as the pharmaceuticals, medical companies, food industry, environmental and occupational health areas as well as private trusts and foundations such as Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

Government

- Governmental Official, public authorities involved in policy related work such as the health ministry, immigration, environment, foreign affairs as well as Medical and healthcare systems administration.